

For Immediate Release

Contact: Cynthia Word
301 951 8333
www.worddance.org

WORD DANCE THEATER CELEBRATES THE LIFE AND DANCES OF ISADORA DUNCAN

Washington DC—On May 1, 2008 at the Dennis and Phillip Ratner Museum Word Dance Theater will present The Dances of Isadora Duncan, an inspiring and educational performance celebrating Isadora Duncan, founder of Modern Dance. Join Cynthia Word, Valerie Durham and Ingrid Zimmer in exploring the major themes of Duncan's art danced to the music of Chopin, Brahms, and Scriabin. Masterworks from every phase of her life will be presented, concluding with "Mother Etude" and "Revolutionary Etude" from her Russian period circa 1924.

Do not miss this wonderful opportunity to experience Duncan's choreography in the intimate setting of the beautiful Ratner Museum.

The Dennis and Phillip Ratner Museum
Isadora Duncan: An Evening of Music and Dance

May 1, 2008 at 7:00 pm
10001 Old Georgetown Rd.
Bethesda, MD. 20814
for more information contact: cynthia@worddance.org or 301 951 8333

Champagne reception immediately following the performance.